Notice 134
(July 2018)

About Your Refund Check...

The amount of the enclosed refund check may be different from the amount you were expecting. If you haven't already received our separate notice explaining why, you should receive it soon.

If you think we may have made an error, please call us. If you are certain the refund check is too large, please return the check with a letter to the service center where you filed your return and we will send you the correct amount. If the refund is too large, and you don't return the check, you may owe us interest.

If you have questions after you receive the notice, please call the telephone number shown at the top of the notice.

... Thank you for your help!

The tax period and form number relating to this refund are printed above the amount area of the check. The tax period is in month and year format - for example, 06/97 means the quarter ended June 30, 1997. We've listed the form numbers and their corresponding titles on the back of this notice.
