GDPR ARRIVAL NOTICE

Dear Partner and Colleagues;

In view of the recent Privacy Policy enforcement as well as the increasingly tighter control of the European Customs Authority in conjunction with AEO license holders, we would like to inform you that all customs declaration services requested from your good company must be accompanied with complete and accurate data in order to ensure no negative impact on the result of the declaration submission to the Customs office.

Furthermore, all goods send to our location / warehouse / facility must be informed and advised to our operator / your normal contact at TGI in advance by written consent. Once we have received your information prior to the arrival of your goods from you or your customer / vendor / partner, we will provide a delivery / pick up reference which the delivery party must have in order to fulfil the delivery to us. All goods delivered to our location / warehouse / facility without such reference will be rejected on site without any exception nor reason.

All consequences of such action will be the responsibility of your good company in full and Top Group International B.V. (TGI) cannot and will not be held liable in any way as a result of this rejection.

We appreciate your kind understanding of this matter in line with the measures taken by the security and customs related authority in Europe and Holland.

We kindly request your written confirmation of the above by return in order for us to provide the services needed to your good company continuously without fail.

Alternatively we will appreciate you returning the below duly signed and dated as a confirmation of the above.

Acknowledgement and Acceptance

We, _____, accepts the terms and conditions set out in Top Group International B.V.'s as mentioned in the above context and agree that they shall form part of any agreement between us now and in the future.
