Product discontinuation of SARCON XR-e series

I am regret to inform you that Fujipoly Japan has decided to discontinue sales of the SARCON XR-e series since we release new product SARCON GR80B series according to Fujipoly Product Strategy. Therefore, we would like you to announce it to your customers and to switch SARCON XR-e series to GR80B series in the meantime.

1. Subject Product:
   SARCON XR-e series

2. Alternative Product:
   SARCON GR80B series

   SARCON GR80B series is released in 2024 as new product which improved some properties of SARCON XR-e series.

3. Last order
   February 28, 2025

4. Last Delivery
   July 30, 2025

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

Yours sincerely
